

THE ALBERT
SCHWEITZER
FELLOWSHIP®

"With a little reason
and much heart,
one can change
many things, or move mountains."
- Dr. Albert Schweitzer

Share your gifts. Receive a wealth of experience.

Through the Schweitzer Fellowship, graduate and professional students from a wide variety of fields will design and lead innovative projects to help local underserved communities improve their health and well-being.

Schweitzer Fellows will:

- Provide 200 hours of service
- Receive a $3,000 stipend
- Receive the guidance of mentors
- Develop program planning and leadership skills
- Join a multidisciplinary network of like-minded change agents, acting upon their idealism. Today.

Applications due Friday, February 13, 2018 at 5:00 PM

Learn about the Columbus-Athens Schweitzer Program and how to apply:

Attend an information session on Tuesday, January 9, 2019 at 4:00-5:00 in the Research Commons, 3rd Floor, 18th Ave. Library

"It is not enough that we acknowledge these disparities, but that we come up with ways to help address them within our own community."

-Jessica Horan,
Ohio State student and Schweitzer Fellow

For more information

Visit <http://www.schweitzerfellowship.org/chapters/columbus/>

Or email the Co-Directors, Drs. Maria Gallo and Lizzie Fitzgerald at Columbus-AthensASF@osu.edu