2013 Regional Homecoming Court Candidate Information

Each year, student leaders are chosen to represent The Ohio State University as members of the Homecoming Court. These individuals are selected by a judging panel that may consist of staff, faculty, and notable alumni. The court members are chosen based on their ability to exemplify the qualities of leadership, spirit, integrity, and achievement through their contributions and involvement at The Ohio State University.

Requirements for regional campus courts

Undergraduates who will have earned at least 30 credit hours by the beginning of fall semester and maintaining a 2.50 cumulative G.P.A. are eligible to apply for the 2013 Homecoming Court. No members of the 2013 Homecoming Committee or past court members may apply.

Selection

Six students will be selected as members of the 2013 Homecoming Court. Alternates will be chosen but not announced unless a Court member cannot fulfill his or her obligations. From these individuals, a King and Queen will be selected. The King and Queen will be announced during the Homecoming festivities. The selection is based upon a student vote and the highest cumulative interviewing scores. In the event of a tie, the highest G.P.A. determines the results.

Each of the regional campuses will have a court of six candidates; three for Queen and three for King.

Recognitions

Together with the courts from ATI, Lima, Mansfield, and Newark, Marion Homecoming Court members will be recognized at a joint crowning ceremony in Columbus with families and friends. All court members will participate in the Homecoming Parade in Columbus; be announced at the Skull Session; and be recognized during the Homecoming football game. Additional recognition may vary by campus. The Homecoming game for 2013 is on October 19 vs. Iowa.

Obligations

Those selected as Court members will be required to attend a number of Homecoming functions including a crowning ceremony, the parade, Skull Session, game, and other activities scheduled in Columbus and on each regional campus. Professional attire will be required for some appearances. Costs for travel to and from Columbus, optional hotel stays and other discretionary costs are the responsibility of the student. Appearances, service projects, and 2014 Homecoming planning throughout the 2013-2014 academic year may also be required. Each applicant must understand that these appearances are mandatory, and by accepting the court position, is also agreeing to fulfill them.

Benefits

Applicants chosen as members of the 2013 Homecoming Court will have the opportunity to network with prestigious Ohio State Alumni and Administrators, build their résumé, and hold a leadership role on campus. Members of the homecoming court will also receive a sash, t-shirt and a free ticket to the Ohio State vs. Iowa homecoming football game.

Deadlines/Submissions

Applications are due via email submission by 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 4. Applicants not meeting this deadline will not be considered.

To submit your application, please save your completed application (to your computer, flash drive, or Buckeye Box) as: 2013 Marion Homecoming Application. Send the completed application as an attachment to Karin Lanius at lanius.1@osu.edu.

Interviews

Homecoming Court interviews will be held September 11-18, 2013. The judging panel may consist of faculty, staff, and alumni of The Ohio State University. The 2013 Homecoming Court will be selected based on the application (30%), interview (60%) and G.P.A. (10%). The King and Queen will then be chosen during Homecoming Week through a combination of the application, interview, G.P.A. and student vote. All applicants will be notified of an interview time by 5:00 pm on Monday, September 9.
