

Save the Date: 04/09/14

Time: 9AM-4PM

WILD About Bats?

MetroParks
SERVING SUMMIT COUNTY

Geauga Soil and Water Conservation District

The University of Akron

GEAUGA PARK DISTRICT

Participate in a free Advanced Project WILD workshop focusing on Ohio's fascinating winged mammals! Researchers and education professionals will share their vast knowledge through formal presentations, as well as hands-on opportunities!

Pre-registration is required by March 31, 2014 and space is limited, so call today!

Location:

The West Woods Nature Center
9465 Kinsman Road, Novelty
(Geauga County)

This educational workshop for both formal and non-formal educators will focus on Ohio bats. We'll cover topics such as:

- ⇒ Bat biology & natural history
- ⇒ Activities with students
- ⇒ Debunking myths
- ⇒ Threats to bat populations
- ⇒ And much, much more!

Contact to pre-register:

The West Woods
Geauga Park District
(440) 279-0880

Contact facilitators with questions:
Gail Prunty, (440)834-1122 ext. 2
Jamey Emmert, (330) 245-3020

Workshop is free!

Please plan to brown-bag your lunch!

