

Dave Redell Lifetime Achievement Award (2019)

Nomination Request

The Midwest Bat Working Group is seeking nominations for the Dave Redell Lifetime Achievement Award. This award honors an individual who has demonstrated an exemplary, long-term commitment to promoting and preserving bats in the Midwest through research, conservation, education, or other creative projects. Any MWBWG member from Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, or Wisconsin is eligible to be recognized.

Dave Redell displaying the wings of a little brown bat for a group of university students (Credit: Jaimie Nack) and installing a beam break system at an entrance to a mine.

To nominate an individual for this award, please submit a letter of nomination that describes their achievements and details why this individual should be considered. Letters of nomination should be submitted by March 8, 2019. The award will be presented at the annual MWBWG meeting.

Send letters of nomination to: Jocelyn Karsk at jkarsk@illinois.edu.