

Ohio Bat Working Group

10th Annual Meeting: January 28th, 2021

- 10:00-10:10: Welcome
- 10:10-11:00: Bat Management and WNS Response in Pennsylvania
Greg Turner, Pennsylvania Game Commission
- 11:00-11:25: Using guano to test for the presence of SARS-CoV-2 in North American bats
Dr. Eman Anis, University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine
- 11:25-11:50: A Survey of Ohio's overwintering bat populations
Levi Johnson, Ohio University
- 11:50-12:15: Seasonal activity of remnant population of Northern Myotis (Myotis septentrionalis) in central Pennsylvania
Mattea A. Lewis, Ohio University
- 12:15-1:00: Lunch/Break
- 1:00-1:25: Artificial roost use by Northern Long-eared bats in West Virginia from 2016-2020
Eric Schroder, AllStar Ecology LLC.
- 1:25-1:50: Species Status Assessment for the Little Brown Bat, Tricolored Bat and Northern Long-eared Bat
Jonathan JaKa, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
- 1:50-2:05: Ohio Bat Conservation Plan Working Group Updates
Sarah Stankavich, Division of Wildlife
- 2:05-2:30: Lightning Talk Session
- 2:05–2:10: Indirect effects of Pseudogymnoascus destructans exposure on Eptesicus fuscus could hinder ecosystem services
Molly Simonis, Wright State University
- 2:10–2:15: Multi-agency artificial roost project
Sarah Stankavich, Division of Wildlife
- 2:15-2:20: Do bats use guano and urine stains to find new roosts?
Bridget Brown, The Ohio State University
- 2:20-2:30: Questions for all lightning presenters
- 2:30-3:00: Agency Updates and Announcements
DOW (Sarah Stankavich)
USFWS (Angie Boyer)