AP Fellows

AP Fellows is an annual competitive grant program that provides AP Summer Institute scholarships for high school teachers at schools serving minority or low-income students who have been traditionally underrepresented in AP courses. The $1,000 scholarships cover the cost of APSI tuition; any remaining funds may be applied to travel and expenses.

Scholarship Requirements

Teachers must:

- Be planning to teach an AP course in the 2015–16 academic year;
- Teach in schools that meet the following criteria:

- At least 50 percent of the student population consists of underrepresented minorities (African-American, Hispanic/Latino, and/or American Indian)

And/or

- At least 50 percent of the student population qualifies for free or reduced-price lunch; and
- Not have received a College Board APSI scholarship for the same subject within the last three years.

Submission Requirements

- 2015 AP Fellows Recommendation Form (to be completed by the principal, assistant principal, department head, or staff member responsible for assigning courses)

AP Rural Fellows

AP Rural Fellows is an annual competitive grant program that provides AP Summer Institute scholarships for teachers serving in rural areas of the country. The $1,500 scholarships cover APSI tuition as well as travel and expenses.

Scholarship Requirements

Teachers must:

- Be planning to teach an AP course in the 2015–16 academic year;
- Teach in schools that are classified as “rural” by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) and at which at least 50 percent of the student qualify for free or reduced-price lunch; and
- Not have received a College Board APSI scholarship for the same subject within the last three years.
