

BELIN-BLANK

Graduate Classes Your Way!

Online Courses in Gifted Education

- Cost of courses starts at $312 (undergraduate credit)
- Register for one or more classes. Online 2018 courses include:
 - EDTL:4073:0WKA Facilitating Student Research Projects
 - EDTL:4096:0WKC Competitions for Gifted/Talented (all grades)
 - EDTL:4024:0WKA Differentiating with Technology
 - EDTL:4074:0WKA Differentiating / Secondary Level
 - RCE:4124:0WKA Ethnic/Cultural Issues and Gifted
 - EDTL:4085:0WKA Current Readings / Research in Gifted Ed
- All are one-semester-hour credits

Ready to Get Started?

- More details at: belinblank.org/educators
- New students should follow the link to Register for the directions to apply as a continuing education student (no fee to apply)
- You need a computer and a reliable internet connection. Many courses provide all necessary course materials. For others, you will need to purchase one or two books.
- No travel requirement. All online courses can be completed at home.
- Questions? Laurie Croft, Associate Director: Professional Development
Laurie-Croft@uiowa.edu

More Professional Development Opportunities

- Webinars: belinblank.org/webinar
- Summer professional development: belinblank.org/educators
- Free online listserv for educators: belinblank.org/listserv

- Learn about gifted education when and where it's convenient for you
- Possibility for moving up the salary scale in your district
- ALL coursework applies to the State of Iowa Talented and Gifted Endorsement