

MARTIN W. ESSEX

School for the Gifted and Talented™ at Otterbein University

A pre-college summer experience

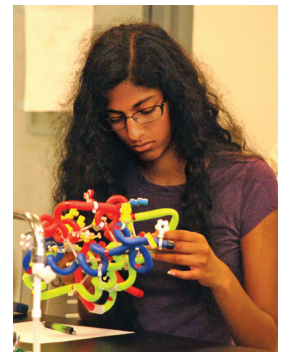

The 2019 Martin W. Essex School for the Gifted and Talented™ at Otterbein University offers rising high school juniors and seniors the chance to explore the arts, sciences and humanities through a set of seminars, hands-on workshops, and field trips. This residential school encourages social interaction and peer discussion so that students are challenged intellectually and artistically and develop a better understanding of their abilities and talents in their lives and in society.

DATES: June 16-22, 2019

LOCATION: Otterbein University

COST OF ESSEX SCHOOL: $650.00. Need-based financial assistance may be available.

FOR GENERAL INFORMATION: call (614) 823-1570 or visit www.otterbein.edu/essex for details and registration packet.

“My experience was completely, one hundred percent, totally awesome! The professors seemed interested in what they were doing. Our camp counselors were enthusiastic and enjoying every moment!”

~ Drake Dewey, Cleveland School of Science and Medicine

“The school gave me a dynamic understanding of an overall college experience which included interesting classes, fun activities and social interaction that enriched my life in profound and surprising ways.”

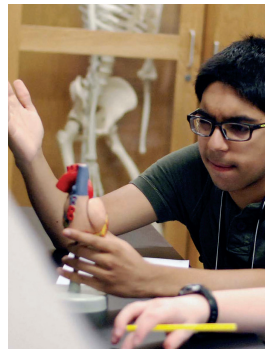

~ Victorial Boals, New Albany High School

“Essex camp was one of the most fun and interesting weeks of my life!”

~ Ross O’Sullivan, St. Francis DeSales High School

“My week at this camp has been one of the best because I’ve made friends that will last a lifetime.”

~ Courtney Russell, Thomas Worthington High School

School of Arts & Sciences
614-823-1570
www.otterbein.edu

