Society for Women in Physics

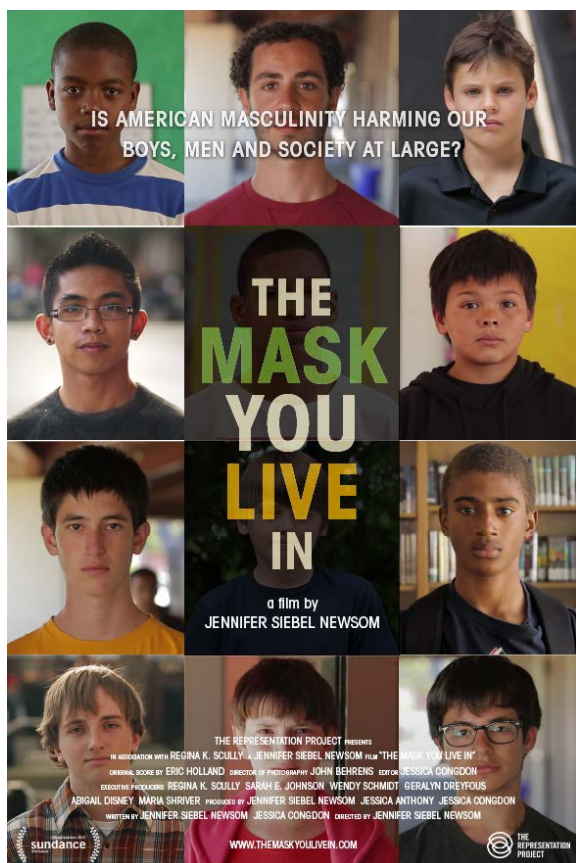

Documentary screening/discussion series:

The Mask You Live In

Wednesdays, April 15 & 22, 5-7 pm

Physics Research Building 1080

(Smith Seminar Room)

In this two-part event, we'll be watching each half of the 2015 documentary The Mask You Live In and discussing the often rigid and restrictive American standards of masculinity, and the effect this has on our culture. Both halves can be attended independently. Snacks provided. All are welcome!
