

Let Physics Be the Dream It Used To Be

Dr. Chanda Prescod-Weinstein

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Postdoctoral Fellow

MIT Center for Theoretical Physics & Kavli Institute for Astrophysics

Chanda Prescod-Weinstein is the Martin Luther King, Jr. Postdoctoral Fellow at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Her current research focuses on early universe cosmology and technical questions relating to how to do quantum field theory calculations in curved spacetimes.

She was listed by the L'Oreal-UNESCO Foundation as one of "5 Amazing Woman Astronomers You Should Know." Prescod-Weinstein is a passionate advocate for racial and gender diversity in STEM and will be sharing her stories about her efforts in this area.

MONDAY

NOV 9, 2015

4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Physics Research Building

Room 1080

191 W Woodruff Ave.

Columbus, OH 43210

zepeda.3@osu.edu

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Office of Diversity and Inclusion, College of Arts and Sciences, Center of Cosmology and Astro Particle Physics, Department of Astronomy, Gender Initiatives in STEM, Society of Women in Physics, Women in Math and Science