

Message regarding the University and Departmental response to COVID-19

Category: Administrative - #1

Date: March 10, 2020

- The Executive Dean has reported that, “Students will be paid despite the changes that are occurring in the context of this COVID-19 situation. All GRAs, GTAs and undergraduate work study students will continue to be paid, whether or not they can come in to their usual workplace. More guidance will be forthcoming.”
- BEWARE of COVID-19 phishing messages. Universities in the state have been experiencing phishing attempts centered around COVID-19. These have led to possible ransomware attacks. Please be cautious and attentive.
- University Central HR will be putting out information about issues like telecommuting and other forms of workplace accommodations. That guidance is expected later today.
- All events surrounding the sesquicentennial events on March 21 have been canceled.
