

Small Farm Conference and Trade Show

To be held on Friday,
March 13, 2015 -
Saturday,
March 14, 2015
at Wilmington College in Wilmington, Ohio.

Hello Small Farm Enthusiast!

This intensive conference will give you the opportunity to choose from different seminars taught by Extension professionals and industry leaders on a wide variety of agricultural enterprises. A tradeshow representing the many industries servicing small farms will be present for you to visit during Saturday hours.

This year we have planned three Friday Afternoon workshops. These hands-on “In the Field” workshops will focus on Fence and Pasture Management, Specialty Crop Production Techniques, and Woodlands Management.

Saturday’s agenda will provide opportunities for you to attend the informative sessions of your choosing. Saturday’s program will begin at 7:45 am with registration, the trade show, and morning refreshments.
